

Akira Ohtsuru, M.D., Ph.D.

Visiting Professor, Nagasaki University,
Atomic Bomb Disease Institute
Co-representative, POFF
Core member, JCJTC

Dr. Ohtsuru graduated from Nagasaki University School of Medicine in 1982. He has worked as an internist in 1st department of Internal Medicine, Nagasaki University Hospital and related hospitals. He has researched to a molecular mechanism of radiation-related carcinogenesis and clinical cancer research in Atomic Bomb Disease Institute, Nagasaki University Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences from 1991 to 2003. He worked as an associated Professor of Internal Medicine to provide medical care for Hibakusha at the International Hibakusha Medical Center, Nagasaki University Hospital from 2003 to 2011. He was dispatched as a head of the medical support team in Fukushima Prefecture during Great East Japan Earthquake and following Nuclear Accident. He was the Professor of Department of Radiation Health Management, Fukushima Medical University since Oct 2011 to Mar 2020 and the Director of Radiation Disaster Medical Center, Advanced Radiation Medical Support Center, Fukushima Medical University Hospital. He has worked to establish an education system of radiation health risk science and the Fukushima Health Management Survey including the thyroid examination. He has been core member of JCJTC and co-representative of NPO POFF since 2020.